House "Barock" on Tylova-Street.

About 400 infantry troops arrived in Ujezd Sv. Križe (Heiligenkreuz-N 50/P 62) in early January 1950 and were quartered in the castle and in civilian houses. The unit held frequent field exercises in the area near the border.

Comment:

a. Although dating back to September 1949 the report is forwarded as it mentions several hitherto unknown officers of the Hq of the 11th Inf Div.

b. Utvar No. 2104 of the division was presumably superseded by a new, hitherto unknown Utvar number on 1 October 1949.

c. The statement that the 11th Inf Div is assigned directly to the 1st ID is doubted, since a report of October 1949 said that the division was assigned to the III Corps in Pilsen which in turn was under the 1st ID, Prague.

d. The infantry troops observed in Ujezd Sv. Križe in January 1950 probably belonged to the 13th Inf Regt.
